ANZSIL POSTGRADUATE RESEARCH STUDENTS WORKSHOP

Wednesday 7 July 2021 (Virtual)

CALL FOR PAPERS: Deadline: Thursday 1 April 2021

The Australian and New Zealand Society of International Law (ANZSIL) Postgraduate Research Students Workshop will be held on Wednesday 7 July 2021 and will be held virtually.

The Workshop aims to provide postgraduate degree research students with an opportunity to present their research to their peers, to discuss their experiences of postgraduate research and to make academic and professional connections. Participants will give presentations on an aspect of their research for approximately 10 minutes, followed by a roundtable discussion of each paper. To facilitate this discussion, participants will be required to submit short papers (no more than 1000 words) for distribution in advance of the Workshop. Participants will also be expected to engage as discussants of other papers. There is no registration fee.

Postgraduate research students wishing to present their work on an international law topic are encouraged to submit their proposals for presentation at the Workshop. Applicants must be enrolled in a higher degree research program (PhD, SJD, or Research Masters) at an Australian or New Zealand university.

The Workshop is preceded by the 28th ANZSIL Annual Conference, which will take place virtually from 30 June – 6 July 2021. Workshop participants are encouraged to attend and there will be no registration fee for workshop participants.

Applicants should submit a one-page abstract and one-page curriculum vitae (both as word documents) by email to anzsil@law.anu.edu.au by no later than Thursday 1 April 2021. Please include the heading on your email message 'PG Workshop Application: [Your Name]'. Your curriculum vitae should indicate clearly how many full years you have completed in your research degree, and whether you have completed any formal requirements for candidacy in your degree. The organisers will let applicants know of the outcome of their application by the middle of April 2021. In the event that there are more applicants than there are places in the Workshop, priority will be given to participants who have not previously presented at an ANZSIL Postgraduate Workshop, and who have completed formal confirmation requirements for their research degree.
